

SIMPSON, CRAWFORD & SIMPSON.

OUR ATTRACTIONS
as seen by the Press.

If any one be in doubt as to the season, and known not whether it be spring or winter, a visit to an "open-house" such, for instance, as is made today by Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, will be the convincing proof that it is the latter. Never before, perhaps, has this well-known house shown such varied and elaborate goods in its departments of millinery, cloaks and suits. All day yesterday new and imported goods were being added to the already immense stocks, and it is safe to say that today will see in this establishment one of the finest arrays of spring garments in New-York City.—Tribune, March 30.

No store in New-York is better supplied with well-selected mantles than Simpson, Crawford & Simpson's, and if you are contemplating a pretty spring wrap visit that department, where you will have the advantage of their large assortment. While many shops abound in dressy vestments for the young and slender, special shapes and styles are reserved here for middle-aged and elderly ladies, who will find an admirable selection of mantles of all kinds and at all prices.—Mail and Express, March 30.

TO AID A FINE INSTITUTION.

THE EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.

ADDRESSES BY BISHOP POTTER, PRESIDENT

LOW AND MR. CHOATE ON APRIL 19.

The addresses by Bishop Henry C. Potter, President Seth Low and Joseph H. Choate in aid of the New-York Exchange for Woman's Work will be given at the Madison Square Concert Hall on the evening of April 19. The address was to have been delivered at the time of the sale at Sherry's several weeks ago, but were postponed on account of bad weather.

An attractive programme has been arranged and a pleasant evening is promised to those who attend, as well as information of the methods, needs and results of a most worthy charity. The music will consist of songs by Plunkett Greene and violinists by Adolph Brodsky. Bishop Potter will speak on the "Sufferings of the Educated Poor." Many people, the managers of the exchange say, do not realize the fact that distress exists among the cultivated and educated, largely perhaps because such people are too proud to allow their wants to be known. The ignorant and starving poor they know about, because the condition of these people is brought openly to their notice, and they give alms to this class generously. Bishop Potter will tell his hearers that there are others in the community, gently reared, to whom reverses have come, whose struggle against poverty is hard, and who deserve the aid of more fortunate people. It is the purpose of the exchange to help these people, while enabling them to preserve their self-respect, by furnishing instruction in artistic or domestic handicraft and by providing a market for their productions, concealing their identity whenever desired.

At the last sale a table was filled with articles exhibited at the first sale of the Exchange, in 1878. The articles were poorly made, and the art was of a low degree. The beautiful and artistic productions of the present contributors formed a strong contrast, and illustrated the educating influence of the Exchange. President Low will make this feature the subject of his address.

Joseph H. Choate will tell of the needs of the Exchange for a building. The rooms at No. 320 Fifth Avenue, are much too small for the work, and there is no room for the educational department, which is to be sold hereafter because there is no place to exhibit their property. At the recent sale, where a favorable display could be made, over $700 was received. It is desired to erect a building near the present rooms sufficiently commodious to afford convenient space for the exchange, and the estimated cost is $200,000. A portion has already been subscribed. It is the object of this meeting to bring the work before the people who have the means to assist it. The tickets are $2 each, and boxes $25. A large number have been taken already, and it is earnestly desired by the managers that all the seats and boxes be sold before next week Monday.

HIS FACE CUT WHILE SAYING HIS PRAYERS.

Jacob Schick was arrested in the Essex Market Police Court yesterday on a charge of felonious assault. A young schoolboy, Charles Spiegelstein, of No. 125 West-st., was the complainant against him. His head was tied up in bandages. Young Spiegelstein said that while he was saying his prayers Friday night, the prisoner appeared at a hole in the chimney and, thrusting his arm through the opening, slashed him in the face with a table knife, splitting his right cheek in two. The defendant denied that he did the cutting. He declared that Spiegelstein had had a quarrel with his brother, Justice Talmor, and had him in default of $15.00 bail for examination on Monday.

GOLD GOING ABOARD AGAIN.

The announcement was made yesterday of a resumption of the gold export movement to Europe, which has been recently suspended. Shipments will be made on Tuesday on the North German Lloyd steamer Alber of $1,000,000 by Lazard Freres and $200,000 by Heidebach, Heidebach & Co., a total of $1,200,000. The coin will be withdrawn from the Sub-Treasury to-morrow, although it is possible that a part of Lazard Freres' quota may be made up from their stock of gold on hand received from San Francisco. The rates of foreign exchange on continental money center have for several days been at a point which justified shipments of the precious metal.

MORTALITY SLIGHTLY INCREASED.

THE GRIP THOUGHT TO HAVE REACHED ITS TURNING POINT.

"The indications are that the epidemic of the grip in the city has reached its turning point, and that there will be a decrease of mortality in the city next week," said Dr. John T. Nagle, the Registrar of Vital Statistics, yesterday. Records in his bureau showed that there had been a slight increase of mortality in the city last week, the number of deaths being 1,149, as compared with 1,135 for the previous week. The increase was accounted for by the deaths from consumption and pneumonia in complication with influenza. About twenty such deaths were reported. The deaths from influenza alone were fourteen in number, or two less than in the previous week. Pneumonia was given as the cause of 273 deaths. A report by Dr. R. S. Tracy, the assistant Registrar, showing the deaths from various causes in the city during two weeks is appended:

Cause of death, etc.	Apr. 1, Mar. 25.	Apr. 1, Mar. 25.
Influenza	14	13
Pneumonia	273	263
Consumption	149	121
Group	11	23
Whooping-cough	16	29
Scarlet fever	5	5
Cerebro-spinal meningitis	15	15
Contagious diseases	89	78
Diarrhoeal diseases	14	19
Heart disease	62	29
Kidney disease	63	94
Violence	47	29
All other causes	350	363
Total	1,149	1,135
Deaths, under 5 years	378	401
Deaths, 65 years and over	131	128
Deaths in institutions	283	282
Deaths in tenements	708	703

There was little change in the extent of suffering from contagious diseases in the city last week. The reports to Chief Inspector Roberts showed that scarlet fever had decreased slightly, while there had been some increase of diphtheria.

In the anticipation of the possible reappearance of cholera in the city during warm weather, the Health Board has been looking for a suitable site for a new disinfecting station and hospital for contagious diseases on the West Side, close to a North River pier. President Wilson and Commissioner Edson made a search together along the river front on Friday, and will probably make some report at the meeting of the Health Board to-morrow. The foundations for the new reception hospital at Sixty-ninth-st. and the East River are nearly completed, and the Commissioners expect to have the building completed by the middle of May.

HAS THE GIRL ELOPED?

Miss Mamie Mitchell, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, the housekeeper of The Alpine apartment house, Thirty-third-st. and Broadway, went out ostensibly to shop on Friday afternoon, and has not returned. It is rumored that she has eloped with a young Brooklyn man. She has been a pupil at St. Mary's School in East Sixteenth-st.

DISMISSAL OF THE BOWLING GREEN SITE PROCEEDINGS.

As Secretary Carlisle has decided that the Government shall not buy the Bowling Green site for a new Custom House, the condemnation suit was ended yesterday. John H. Bird, representing one of the defendants, moved before Judge Lacombe, in the United States Circuit Court, that all the proceedings be stopped. A. B. Boardman, special counsel for the Government, did not oppose the motion, and it was granted.

There was, however, a difference of opinion about the compensation of the successful suitors. Mr. Bird said that they had been put to great expense in the proceedings, and should be reimbursed. Mr. Boardman argued that the court had no authority to fix the amount of the costs.

Judge Lacombe held the opposite opinion, and allowed the property owners 5 per cent of the appraised value of their holdings to cover their expenses. The property had been appraised at $2,100,000, so they will divide $105,000 between them. There were nearly 100 defendants.

Mr. Boardman said he didn't know whether the Secretary of the Treasury would try to get another site with the money appropriated or not.

ABOUT FIFTY CENTS A PERFORMANCE.

John E. Ward, as master in the suit of Augustus Daly against William A. Brady and George P. Webster in the United States Circuit Court, has filed his report. The suit was for damages for infringement of Mr. Daly's copyright of the locomotive scene used in the defendants' play "After Dark." The drama was played 747 times, and Mr. Ward fixes Mr. Daly's damages at $326.65.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

Services commemorative of the founding of Christ Episcopal Church, 100 years ago, will be held to-morrow evening at the church, at the corner of Seventy-first-st. and the Western Boulevard. The exercises will be of a highly interesting character, and will be attended by many of the most prominent clergymen and laymen in the city. Among those who will deliver addresses will be the Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, D. D., Bishop of the diocese; the Rev. Dr. Thomas M. Peters, archdeacon of New-York; the Rev. Dr. William R. Huntington, rector of Grace Church; the Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of St. Bartholomew's Church; the Rev. Dr. D. Parker Morgan, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and others.

Christ Church was the first parish established in this city after the Revolution, and in point of age ranks next to old Trinity. Early in 1793, 173 members of Trinity parish petitioned the vestry to call as an assistant minister a particularly brilliant preacher, the Rev. Joseph Plimere. The vestry refused to grant the prayers of the petitioners, and they seceded from the old parish and established one of their own, with Dr. Plimere as their rector, and on April 9, 1793, a century ago to-morrow, the ceru-

A CALL ISSUED BY ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN.

A circular letter has been sent out to all the parishes of his diocese by Archbishop Corrigan inviting them to a meeting, which will be held on next Tuesday in the Cathedral school hall. The object is to consider new methods for raising money to complete the seminary at Yonkers. It is now proposed to obtain in every parish contributions from parishioners in amounts varying from $5,000 to $10.

Committees are to be found in each parish to act in connection with the general committee. This plan will be discussed at the meeting. The clergy are of the opinion that the wealthy laity should be called upon for heavy subscriptions, as usually they are slow to respond in important cases. More than one Catholic layman in New-York City is entirely able to complete the seminary without disturbing his income.

The plan of a debt association, however, will not receive much approval in the parishes struggling with debt. It is the desire of the authorities to leave the seminary property free of debt, so that when opened it may devote its revenues to the support of an excellent faculty. The funds so far collected have borne heavily on the parishes, and the priests, but the necessity of securing an institution worthy of the diocese and superior to anything in the country has made them willing to contribute largely.

MAX FREEMAN'S DIVORCE CASE.

Max Freeman, whose matrimonial troubles have recently attracted publicity, made a statement yesterday, through his counsel, E. Flaxman, of No. 2 Nassau-st. Mr. Freeman denied, in the most emphatic manner, the statements published as coming from Mrs. Freeman. He said that he and his wife agreed to separate some time ago. Articles of separation were signed on February 25. The sum agreed upon that he was to pay his wife, Mr. Freeman says, was $50 a week. He had paid her since then $40, much more than the sum stipulated, because she said she would go West to visit her father.
